Your Data, Your Way

We've updated Outlook's privacy settings to let you know what data we collect and how we use it. When you entrust your data to Office, you remain the sole owner of that data.

We collect required diagnostic data to keep your apps secure, up-to-date, and performing as expected on the device it's installed on.

Getting Better Together

We'd like additional diagnostic and usage data sent to us. It's how we continue to improve. None of this data includes your name, email content, or information about apps unrelated to Office.

Do you want optional diagnostic and usage data about your Outlook and Office experience sent to Microsoft?

Powering Your Experiences

Outlook includes experiences that connect to online services, such as Calendar Apps, Maps, and Interesting Calendars. When you use these experiences, service diagnostic data is collected. In addition, some of these services analyze your content to deliver suggestions and recommendations.

To adjust these privacy settings, go to Privacy Settings under Settings.
